

Reena Sood

Director, Broker and Consultant Relationship Management
Group Voluntary & Worksite Sales
MetLife, Inc.

Reena Sood is a Director in MetLife's Broker and Consultant Relationship Management Group. Reena is responsible for driving sales growth at the national level with key brokerage and consulting firms and identifying opportunities to drive national strategies into the local markets.

In her over 11 years of tenure with MetLife, Reena has held roles of significant responsibility in Global Business, Sales, and Account Management. Most recently, Reena was a Regional Sales Manager in Global Employee Benefits and responsible for providing expatriate solutions to clients and brokers spanning the West and Pacific Northwest.

Prior to Global Employee Benefits, Reena spent majority of her carrier at MetLife as a National Accounts Account Executive where she was responsible for the overall relationship (including all MetLife products and services) with MetLife's largest customers. She served as the lead account representative coordinating resources across MetLife's lines of business, customizing products and services to meet unique customer needs, and supporting customers in the development of their benefit strategies.

Reena received her Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and Finance from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Reena resides in Chicago, IL with her family.